I Ching and Dream Interpretation

"The I Ching as a Tool in Dream Interpretation" will be the topic of the well-known lecturer and author Charles Poncé when he speaks at Concordia University on Saturday, November 27th at 8 p.m. in room H-435 of the Hall Building, Sir George Williams Campus, 1455 de Maisonneuve West.

Poncé, who is director of the Azoth Foundation for the Study of Symbols, was formerly a field researcher and advisor to the Navaho Tribe on the Navaho Reservation in New Mexico.

He has lectured widely in various Analytical Psychology Clubs, C.G. Jung Foundations and Societies, universities and colleges throughout the United States.

He is also the author of such books as The Nature of the I Ching: Its Usage and Interpretation; The Game of Wizards: Psyche, Science & Symbol in the Occult; The Body has Wings: Parapsychology & Eastern Religion. He is now working on The Water Stone of the Wise: Alchemy & Transformation.

The Charles Poncé lecture is co-sponsored by the Religion Society of Concordia University and the C.G. Jung Society of Montreal.
